

DC Tour Guide

Shutdown Guidance

UNAVAILABLE during shutdown

U.S. Capitol ★ Library of Congress ★ White House
FBI Headquarters ★ All Smithsonian/Federal Museums
except as noted below

Open to the public

Supreme Court - Building is open 9am-3pm (on non-argument days). Reach out to our office to schedule a 20 minute courtroom lecture.

U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum - Open through October 24th. Reserved timed-entry tickets required.

Arlington National Cemetery - The cemetery is open, with the exception of Arlington House being closed. Changing of the Guard every hour on the hour.

George Washington's Mount Vernon - The shutdown does not impact the operations of Mt. Vernon. Paid entry required.

Spy Museum - The shutdown does not impact the operations of the Spy Museum. Paid entry required.

Museum of the Bible - The shutdown does not impact the operations of the Museum of the Bible. Paid entry required. 50% discount for all federal government employees during shutdown.

The National Mall is open

All outdoor memorial grounds remain open.

Additional info available on washington.org